Restorative Justice Practices

Restorative Justice Practices is a system of formal and informal processes that build and sustain a culture of kindness, respect, responsibility and justice. This is achieved through emphasizing the importance of trusting relationships as central to building community and repairing relationships when harm has occurred.
Restorative Principles

- Relationships are central to building community
- Equity of voice
- Inclusive decision-making
- Shared ownership of classroom and school-wide values
- Non-punitive response to wrong-doing
- Positive change supported when we do “with” not “for” or “to” others
“Human beings are happier, more cooperative and productive, and more likely to make positive changes in their behavior when those in positions of authority do things with them, rather than to them or for them.”

CIRCLE GUIDELINES

- Speak from the heart: your truth, your experiences, your perspectives
- Listen from the heart: let go of stories that make it hard to hear each other
- Trust that you will know what to say: no need to rehearse
- Say just enough: without feeling rushed, be concise and considerate of the time of others
Affective language provides a structure for reinforcing desired behaviors and challenging/redirecting unwanted behaviors.

- It is the genuine expression of feelings, impacts and emotions in relation to specific behaviors and actions.

RESTORATIVE QUESTIONS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

(ASK ALL CHILDREN)

WHAT HAPPENED?
If children are too upset, you can state “the facts”: ex. It looks like you both want a turn at the same time on the swing.

HOW DO YOU FEEL?
If child is not sure, ask: “It looks like you feel…Is that right?”

WHO IS HURT? HOW?
If child is not sure, offer “It looks like your friend is hurt.” Model empathy by attending to the one who is hurt.

HOW CAN WE MAKE IT BETTER?
How can we help?
What needs to happen next?

PREGUNTAS RESTAURATIVAS PARA LOS NIÑOS PEQUÑEOS

(PREGUNTELE A TODOS LOS NIÑOS)

¿Qué Paso?
Si están muy molestos los niños, puede decir “los hechos”: ejemplo. Parece que los dos quieren un turno al mismo tiempo en el columpio.

¿Cómo te sientes?
Si el niño no está seguro, pregunte: “Parece que te sientes…Es así?”

¿Quien está herido? Cómo?
Si el niño no está seguro, ofrezca “Parece que tu amigo está herido.” Muestre empatía, asistiendo a la persona que está herida.

¿Cómo podemos hacerlo mejor?
¿Cómo podemos ayudar?
¿Que debe ocurrir ahora?

REMINDER TO ADULTS

1. Move in close.
2. Make sure everyone is safe.
3. State what you see happening.
5. Your job is to understand all viewpoints, not decide who is right or wrong.
6. Wait and let them come up with solutions on their own if possible.

RECUERDO PARA LOS ADULTOS

1. Acercese.
2. Asegure que todos se sienten seguros.
3. Diga lo que está ocurriendo.
4. Use una voz tranquila. Póngase cómodo.
5. Su trabajo es entender todos los puntos de vista, no decidir quién es correcto o incorrecto.
6. Si es posible, espere y déjelos que piensen en soluciones por su cuenta.
