

The aim of restorative practice is to build, repair, and maintain communities around inclusive networks of right relationships.

Ingredients of Restorative Practice

Emphasis: Building and Maintaining Community

+

A Circle Keeper

+

Four Intentions

Listen from the heart
 Speak from the heart
 Be of Lean Expression
 Speak without Rehearsal

=

Restorative Practice

+

Emphasis: Repairing Community and Making Things Right

A voluntary encounter between someone who has done harm and the person(s) they have harmed, where the harmer accepts responsibility and wants to make things right (usually involves family and community)

+

Restorative Questions

What were your thoughts?
 What were your feelings?
 Who was impacted? How?
 What needs to be done to make it right?

+

A plan for making things right

+

Accountability for completing the plan and support for overcoming obstacles

=

Restorative Justice